Proposed New State Taxes

The following is the 10-point tax program submitted to the Legislature by Gov. Saltonstall:

1—Increase in rate of tax on business as incomes from 1½ to 2½ per cent for the current year, and from 1½ to 2 per cent for 1940. Estimated revenue increase for 1939, $3,500,000, for 1940, $1,750,000.

2—Removal by equitable degrees of all exemptions from the income tax on business incomes of persons whose total net income from all source exceeds $5000. Estimated revenue increase for 1939, $750,000 and the same for 1940.

3—Reduction of current exemptions from the business income tax to $1400 per taxpayer, plus $500 for wife and $250 for each other eligible dependent. No revenue estimated for 1939, but revenue for 1940 estimated at $4,000,000. (Present exemption is $2000.)

4—Continuation of sur-taxes on individuals, corporations, and inheritances, which have been imposed in recent years. Estimated for 1939, $4,000,000, and the same for 1940.

5—Increase in the sur-tax imposed on interest and dividends from 10 per cent of the tax imposed by the General Laws, Chapter 62, Section 1, to 20 per cent thereof in 1939 and 15 per cent in 1940. Estimated for 1939, $1,800,000, and for 1940, $900,000.

6—Increased inheritance taxes. Estimated for 1939, $225,000, and for 1940, $450,000.

7—Cigarette tax of 2 cents similar to that enforced in Connecticut, New York, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire. Estimated for 1939, $3,000,000, and for 1940, $7,000,000.

8—Increase in state's take from dog racing of $750,000 in 1939, and the same in 1940.

9—Increase in liquor taxes of $1,000,000 in 1939, and $2,000,000 in 1940.

10—Increase in the gasoline tax of 2 cents per gallon for 1939, and 1 cent per gallon in 1940. Estimated for 1939 $7,000,000, and for 1940 $7,000,000.

HUGE STATE TAX BOOST URGED

Governor Asks Income, Cigarette, Gas Increases

Governor Saltonstall today submitted to the Legislature one of the stiffest and most far-reaching taxation programs in the state's history.

It included proposals to levy two cents on each package of cigarettes, to raise income tax rates and lower exemptions and to increase the state gasoline tax two cents a gallon this year.

Also there would be new taxes on liquor, dog races and renewed surtaxes—the whole, according to the governor, being designed to produce new state revenue of $50,625,000 for 1939 and 1940.

Of this total sum, $22,025,000 would be produced this year, and $28,600,000 in 1940, toward easing the burden on real estate.

HITS ALL OF 4,000,000

The program would affect virtually every one of Massachusetts' 4,000,000 residents, including wage earners receiving as little as $28 a week, motorists and all cigarette smokers.

Asserting "the present crisis demands emergency taxes on a broad, fair basis," Governor Saltonstall contended that his new revenue program—sure to produce a bitter battle in the legislature chambers—would, in effect, wipe out the controversial state tax a deficiency levy on cities and towns made to balance the state budget.

Perhaps most directly concerned under the proposed changes in the income tax law would be the low-wage earner.

INCOME TAX BOOST

The increase in the rate of tax on business income would be boosted from one and one-half per cent to two and one-half per cent this year, and dropped to two per cent in 1940.

Simultaneously, the exemption would be lowered from the existing $2000 to $1400 for single men and from the present $2500 level to $1900 for married men.

These lowered exemptions, however, would not be effective until 1940.

Under the governor's program, all of the additional revenue, with the exception of $7,000,000 of the sum expected each year from the proposed boost in the gasoline tax—a total of $15,025,000 this year and $21,600,000 in 1940—would be turned into the general fund to help pay state expenses.

The $7,000,000 each year would be distributed to cities and towns under the same method as that employed earlier this year by the

NEW FEAR OF HITLER COUP

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, June 1—While rushing to repair the diplomatic damage wrought by Russia's refusal to enter a triple entente save on Moscow's own terms, Britain today watched closely lest Germany use the situation to bound towards fresh expansion.

Viscount Halifax, foreign secretary, broke off his vacation in Yorkshire and sped back to London for a conference with his foreign office colleagues on the next steps to meet the demands set forth by Vyacheslav Molotov, Soviet foreign commissar.

Molotov called for flat automatic guarantees of mutual aid, without any League of Nations encumbrances, and protection for Russia's western neighbors.

FEAR HITLER MOVE

Italy and Germany regarded Molotov's speech as one of the most severe blows democratic diplomacy has suffered in months.

This attitude on the part of the powers against which the entente would be directed raised the fear in some quarters that Hitler would regard further bickering as an opportunity to precipitate another crisis.

Soviet embassy sources said the official Moscow reply would be just as uncompromising as yesterday's speech of Premier Molotov.

Russians in London indicated the reply might be forthcoming before this week-end. Embassy spokesmen said it will insist emphatically that no triple alliance can be sealed until neutrality and independence of Russia's Baltic neighbors are guaranteed.

This presents an extremely difficult problem for the British and

GUARD 922 JEWS ON SHIP FROM MUTINY, SUICIDES

HAVANA, June 1 (INS)—Guarded by police and troops against self-destruction, 922 men and women German Jewish refugees milled about the decks and salons of the Hamburg American liner St. Louis today, barred from entry into Cuba and with no place to go save the homeland from whence they fled.

Captain Wilhelm Schroeder, master of the St. Louis, expressed grave fears of a mutiny aboard if the refugees were headed back toward Germany, and told of a "collective suicide pact" threatened by the passengers if no haven is offered them.

Meanwhile Captain Schroeder announced postponement of the departure of the ship in the hope that permission could yet be obtained to land the passengers. The vessel had been scheduled to start back to Germany this afternoon.

SEND NEW APPEAL

In the face of the despairing situation, however, little hope was held out that the refugees would be allowed to land in Cuba. Luis Clas-

Townsend Act Killed In House, 302 to 97

WASHINGTON, June 1 (INS)—The House today killed the Townsend old-age pension plan bill in the face of threats of political retaliation against opponents of the plan in the 1940 elections.

The vote was 302 against the bill, 97 for. Only 36 members failed to vote.

The vote was clear cut. It was on the Hendricks bill, embodying the Townsend pension plan as approved by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, leader of the movement.

Democratic leaders, who forced the showdown vote, plan to follow today's action with consideration of an administration bill revising and liberalizing the present social security act which provides speeding up of old-age pension payments.

Scores of members answered the House roll-call reluctantly and dolefully. Many frankly admitting they may have sealed their political fate by their votes.

Inventor's Latest Trap Kills Mice, Toasts Cheese

CHICAGO, June 1 (AP)—Bright ideas by the dozens, lovingly packed in excelsior, began to arrive at the national inventors' congress today for the annual exhibition, which will begin June 6.

Roy Burns, managing director of the congress, estimated 200 to 500 of the very latest gadgets would be on display. He said he might think up something himself for the occasion.

John Lapka's contribution is just another shaving brush to the unpracticed eye, but turn the handle and out from the bristles pops a second, smaller brush for scraping narrow surfaces such as the mustache line.

From a table of gadgets Burns picked up what looked like a deep electric socket.

"This is an electric mouse trap," he said. "You place the cheese in the socket and then connect it to a wall plug. The mouse comes creeping in, takes a sniff, takes a bite, and whango!

"It also toasts the cheese."

An inventor with a thought for the bartender who must risk cut fingers while breaking bottles, has produced a box which does the job neatly and safely. It was out of commission today, but Burns explained how it used to work.

On the floor near by was Adam Gay's combination sled and coaster, fun in winter or summer. The wheels are retracted to set the runners on ice, and with each coaster-sled comes a pole for propulsion. On the vernal end is a rubber tip; on the other, a pair of spikes for icy going.

Business Bigwigs To See Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—President Roosevelt will meet with approximately a dozen big businessmen for discussion of economic problems at the White House tonight.

Names of all of them were not announced, but they were reported to include members of the Commerce Department's business advisory council. Among them are Charles R. Hook, president of the American Rolling Mill Co.; Sidney J. Weinberg, New York investment banker, and John D. Biggers, Toledo glass manufacturer.

The President kept abed today with a sinus cold and slight fever. Officials said that if he could not attend dinner at the White House tonight he would receive the businessmen in his study afterward.

6 FELLED AT FIRE

DES MOINES, Ia., June 1 (AP)—Six firemen were overcome when fire destroyed the top floor of Sears Roebuck's six-story department store today. Company officials estimated the loss would reach $350,000.

ALIMONY petition of Mrs. Ruth Inez Poorvu Spitzer of Brookline, shown here, was denied in Suffolk Court by Judge John V. Mahoney, who declared 90 per cent of the evidence in her case should be "thrown out." She sought further funds for support of her year-old son, Richard.

'CAVE-MAN'S' $10 ALIMONY MUST DO BROOKLINE WIFE

Mrs. Ruth Inez Poorvu Spitzer, 24, of Winchester street, Brookline, freed recently from a husband she called a "cave-man," will have to get along on the $10 weekly alimony set at the time of her divorce.

HIDING her face, Agnes Osborn arrives at New York police headquarters for questioning in the shooting of Patrolman Emmet Cassidy during drinking bout.

So ruled Judge John V. Mahoney, who, in denying her petition for an increase, declared that 90 per cent of the evidence in the case could be "thrown out."

Testifying that she was a "burden" on her father, Phillip Poorvu, prominent Brookline building contractor, the pretty dark-haired young woman had filed a post-divorce petition for alimony in addition to the $10 weekly allowance awarded her for the support of her year-old son, Richard.

Mrs. Spitzer was awarded a divorce on grounds of cruel and abusive treatment, Dec. 18, 1938, following a hotly contested trial in which she described her husband as a "cave man, who believed in beating me once a week."

Taking the stand yesterday in support of her petition Mrs. Spitzer told the ocurt that she has been under doctor's care since she left her husband and because of increased expenses needed at least $45 a week for support of herself and her child.

Blaming her parents for his marital woes, Spitzer, in answer to a query by Mrs. Spitzer's attorney, vowed "eternal bitterness" towards his former wife, saying:

"She spent money faster than I could make it." He testified that his salary is $4000 a year.

Deny Flier, Mrs. Vanderbilt Had Romance

LOS ANGELES, June 1 (INS)—If there was a romance in the life of Thomas H. Smith, intrepid airman, missing on his transatlantic flight, it was not with Mrs. Helen Varner Vanderbilt, estranged wife of Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., the author.

Calvin Helgoe, attorney representing Mrs. Vanderbilt, made this denial in her behalf as news dispatches from New York quoted an asserted representative of Smith as saying such a romance existed.

Howard Huntington, according to the news dispatches, reported he had a long distance telephone call last night from Mrs. Vanderbilt at her South Pasadena home, asking whether there was "any hope" for Smith.

"She was so hysterical she couldn't talk herself, so a friend talked for her," Huntington said.

Mama Wouldn't Let Him Wed, Says Girl

On a beautiful May evening in 1931, Miss Sylvia Cohen, 35, of Charlotte street, Dorchester, fell in love with Abraham Berg, $73-a-week movie operator, as the couple sat parked in an automobile in Franklin Park.

GRIN OF DELIGHT wreaths the face of Wallace Beery, screen actor, as he hugs his adopted daughter, Carol Ann, after his divorced wife, now remarried, consented to his having permanent custody of the child.

It was then he proposed they never part, according to her testimony as trial continued in Suffolk Superior Court today in her $25,000 heart balm suit.

The suit is one of the last to be filed before breach of promise suits were outlawed by the Legislature.

MAMA SAID "NO"

For seven years they were sweethearts, planned for the day they should wed, she told Judge Francis J. Good. That day finally arrived, but two days before the wedding day Berg tearfully told her that his mother wouldn't let him marry her, according to Miss Cohen's testimony.

Miss Cohen, who came here from England in 1923, testified she gave up her career as a stage singer after the alleged Franklin Park avowal.

Thereafter, she said, she gave up all other interests for him, in expectation they eventually would be married.

LICENSE IN WORCESTER

They went to Worcester and obtained a license, she testified in May, of 1938, and May 19 was set as the date for the wedding. Then, she said, he moved the wedding date up to the 18th, but on the 17th he told her there had been a "big fight" at his house.

He told her, she testified, his mother had learned of their plans and forbade him to marry her. She "went to pieces," she said, at the news. She was still on the stand when court was recessed until this morning.

RIOT AT INQUEST; GIRL SLAYER HELD

CHICAGO, June 1 (INS)—A coroner's inquest, thrown into an uproar when a dozen persons joined in an attack upon Anton Papas, quick-trigger watchman who killed 20-year-old Muriel Campbell, recommended today that Papas be held to the grand jury on a charge of murder.

The fatal shooting was the outgrowth of a juvenile prank involving a 85-cent watermelon.

Robert Campbell, the dead girl's 17-year-old athlete brother, was just leaving the stand when suddenly he rushed at Papas, shouting:

"I'll kill you, you ——!"

He struck Papas in the face, and the room was in a turmoil. William J. Campbell, the girl's father, leaped into the melee and swung at Papas.

Friends of the girl joined in. Chairs were swung and overturned. Women screamed. Police and coroner's deputies saved the cringing Papas from serious injury.

Other witnesses testified that Muriel, with a group of boy and girl friends, had been swimming. En route home they stopped at a fruit store where Papas was watchman. Muriel and another girl picked up a watermelon and began tossing it back and forth between them until it eventually dropped and broke.

There was an argument with Papas, it was testified, during which he fired a shot into the floor and then, as the girls fled, fired after them. A bullet struck Muriel in the back of the head.

Mrs. Kennedy Here Friday

Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, wife of the United States ambassador to the Court of St. James's will return to Boston tomorrow with her parents, former Mayor and Mrs. John F. Fitzgerald, it was learned today.

Mrs. Kennedy, on a brief visit to the United States, was met in New York by her mother and father when she disembarked from the French liner Normandie. With her parents, she is staying at the Westchester Country Club.

How long Mrs. Kennedy will remain in Boston was not disclosed. The Kennedy children remained in England.

BOY, 7, HIT BY AUTO

Struck by an automobile while running across the street near his home in Grant pl., Allston, 7-year-old Andy Duquesnay is under treatment today for a fractured skull and shoulder.

GUARD MOSELEY FROM 'POISONING'

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—A mysterious aide of Major-General George van Horn Moseley declined today to let the retired army officer drink from a water supply provided for witnesses before the House committee on unAmerican activities.

This incident occurred after the general, beginning his second day of testimony on Communist and anti-Communist activities, asked Rhea Whitely, committee counsel, whether he would "guarantee" the water supply.

The aide, who refused to identify himself to newsmen, warned the general, "Don't touch it."

"I'll get you paper cups," he said.

He took a partly filled glass from the table before Moseley and carried it to a water cooler in the corner where he refilled it.

The incident was without immediate explanation, but it recalled to some present at the hearing that on at least one previous occasion the general had been in fear of his life.

In the file of his correspondence collected by the committee was a letter he wrote a friend some months ago saying he might be "bumped off" on a Western trip.

WANTED HOUSECLEANING

Moseley began his testimony today by answering questions about correspondence with James E. Campbell, army reserve captain of Owensboro, Ky., an earlier witness before the committee.

Reading from a letter which Moseley said he had sent to Campbell December 30, 1938, Whitley asked what he meant by predicting that Campbell would see "a housecleaning in two years."

"I suppose," Moseley rejoined, "that I was referring to the political situation as I hoped it would develop in 1940."

The general denied that he was partisan in his political belief.

"I have no feelings one way or another," he said. "I have been working for a change in policies in government, whether that change came from a Republican or a Democratic leadership."

He testified the Sentinels of the Republic paid him a $100 honorarium and $86 expenses for a speech he made to that organization at Boston.

"I think I'm considerably out of pocket as a result of these speeches," the general said.

Sex Slayer Long Denied New Trial

HOWARD LONG
Faces Execution

CONCORD, N. H., June 1—New Hampshire's Supreme Court today denied a new trial appeal of Howard Long, slayer of a ten-year-old Laconia schoolboy while on parole from a Massachusetts sentence for sex offenses.

The denial came after a protracted series of court hearings and appeals in which counsel for Long contended he was insane.

The denial virtually ended further hope of postponing the execution of Long, set originally for last December.

Long was convicted of killing Mark Neville Jensen in 1937. His conviction opened an inquiry in Massachusetts over the reason for his release there, but the Massachusetts Legislature cleared officials from all blame.

ORDER 685 MORE FAMILIES MOVED

Thirty-day notices to vacate were mailed today to 685 families in the Mission Hill district, Roxbury, where the Boston Housing Authority has taken over approximately 18 acres of land by eminent domain for a $6,000,000 federal housing project.

And even as the notices were mailed, bringing the total number of families forced recently to move, or to prepare to move, to 1964—a total of approximately 7300 persons—a protest meeting was scheduled for today in Faneuil Hall.

Those forced to move charge that adequate living facilities are not presently available, while landlords and others charge that the federal projects are ineffective in that WPA workers and those on relief are barred from participating in housing benefits.

It is further charged that tenants in the projects must, necessarily, be taken from private landlords and taxpayers.

Projects under way include buildings in Charlestown, South Boston and another Roxbury project in Lenox avenue. John A. Breen, chairman of the Boston Housing Authority, asserts that eventually $191,000,000 will be expended here on projects intended to give better living conditions to 35,000 families.

There are, it was said in rebuttal, 56,000 families here on WPA or relief.

Boss Treats All Hands to 10 A. M. Snack

LAWTON, Okla., June 1 (AP)—Employes of a tank company here lay down their tools at 10 o'clock every morning and have crackers and cold milk—on the boss.

Shop talk is out during the five-minute rest period.

"Most of the men probably hurry to work on a light breakfast," reasoned Proprietor Fred Lartrance, who started the plan this week. "By 10 o'clock they are a little hungry and weary.

"The refreshing effect of the milk and crackers and the rest puts them in the frame of mind to continue their work until noon."

PHILADELPHIA, June 1 (AP)—Eleven firemen were overcome by smoke today fighting flames in the forehold of the steamship Louis Luckenbach at the Delaware river docks.

Snite Plans To Become Priest

LOURDES, France, June 1 (INS)—Despite the expressed fears and protests of his father, Frederick B. Snite, Jr., Chicago paralysis victim who lives in an iron lung, was again immersed today in the icy water of the sacred pool of Lourdes.

Snite, Sr., feared the shock of the water might prove harmful but the youth finally won his father's consent by pleading:

"If you only knew how I feel after one of these baths! I never feel any physical letdown afterwards, but I'm always nervous beforehand."

Young Snite cherishes the hope that he may one day become a Roman Catholic priest if he recovers from the illness which confines him to the lung which has replaced his almost totally paralyzed breathing muscles.

The wish of the devout young man was expressed during conversations with his father, a nurse, and a reporter following the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at Lourdes grotto.

"Fred," said his father, "has had the idea in the back of his head for some time, but this is the first time he ever spoke of it publicly."

ROME, June 1 (INS)—After his present visit to the Lourdes shrine, Frederick B. Snite, Jr., infantile paralysis victim, intends to make a long stay on the island of Capri, off Naples, it was understood today. His father has rented a villa there.

City Bids $1 for Atlantic Ave. 'L'

Mayor Tobin today took steps to buy the Boston Elevated's abandoned structure in Atlantic avenue for the price of $1, instead of the $100,000 usually mentioned for it, with a view to tearing it down.

With legislation already pending on Capitol Hill for the purchase of the old trestle, the mayor conferred with Edward Dana, general manager of the Elevated, Eliot Wadsworth, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Charles A. Coyle, the Chamber's public relations director, and members of the organization's legislative committee.

While no statement regarding the conference was forthcoming, it was learned that the mayor suggested the $1 sale price for the structure.

Another meeting is to be held tomorrow, with the mayor repeating his proposal to the Elevated's directors and the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Should the Elevated agree to sell the structure for $1, the mayor will ask the legislature to rush through necessary sanction, and the destruction of the trestle will be got under way as soon as possible.

110th Cavalry Off for Camp

"Boots and Saddles" was sounded today for the 110th Cavalry, Massachusetts National Guard, and that unit, 440 officers and men and 120 horses, will entrain tomorrow for the "front."

The "front," where the 110th and the 102nd of New Jersey, forming the 59th Cavalry Brigade, will engage in concerted maneuvers for two weeks, is Indiantown Gap, Pa.

Going into encampment with the 110th are the attached 21st Reconnaissance and 121st Quartermaster squadrons. Troops will entrain at the Allston station at 11 p. m. The mounts will be shipped from the Roxbury yards of the New Haven railroad.

FIND LEAK AT BLAST SCHOOL

BARBERTON, O., June 1 (AP)—Investigators unearthed a broken gas main today outside the wrecked school building where a blast yesterday injured 53 children and four adults.

Fire Chief Claude Witwer said a complete break was found in the 1¼-inch pipe feeding the frame temporary school, a former residence, with natural gas. The break, he said, was about nine feet outside the basement and the ground around the break was permeated with fumes.

Witwer said investigators theorized that the pipe might have been defective before the explosion, and that fumes perhaps seeped into the basement from the break.

Of the 57 injured, two small children and a janitor were given scarcely a fighting chance to survive.

Doctors described as serious the condition of four others, including a teacher. Thirty-one of the 57 injured were confined to hospitals.

The blast occurred at mid-afternoon yesterday, blowing out walls and buckling the floors of the two-story, eight-room structure, a residence converted last fall into a temporary school for first to fifth grade pupils.

Those near death were "first graders" Dorothy Young, 6, and Frances Fisher, 7, both injured about the head and body, and P. S. White, 59, janitor, critically burned.

Seriously hurt were Ray Clemens, 7, internal injuries; Lucinda Williams, 7, Negro, burns; Mary Mattingly, 7, possible skull fracture, and Miss Mabelle Miller, 38, 1-B teacher, fractured leg and ribs and possible internal injuries.

Air Pilot, Stewardess Wed In Hub Hurricane Romance

An aerial romance that began with the hurricane in Boston last September had culminated in a honeymoon today after the wedding in Arlington, Va., of pretty Florence Verlynn Gadberry, stewardess on the New York-Boston route of American Airlines, and John W. Adams, first officer on the Newark-Chicago route.

Adams was assigned to emergency duty in Boston right after the hurricane and it was here he met Miss Gadberry whose home is in Olney, Texas. She was the stewardess on one of his flights. It was a case of love at first sight but courtship was something else again.

They became engaged last January. After a brief honeymoon they will live in Newark. Adams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Adams of West Hartford, Ct.

Pay for Jobless Jumps $105,833

A sharp increase in claims and benefit payments was reported today by the State Division of Unemployment Compensation.

Disbursements to jobless totaled $442,699 for the week ended May 24, compared with $296,776 for the preceding week, the division announced, while claims jumped from 11,325 to 12,520.

Sizable increases were reported by the Boston, Springfield, Worcester, New Bedford and Marlboro offices, with a slight falling off in new claims filed in Brockton and Fall River.

The division reported $35,016,823 had been paid out since the law went into effect a year and a half ago, $7,788,833 of this in 1939.

Murphy Says Capone 'Not Good' Mentally

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—Attorney General Murphy said today the mental condition of Al Capone is reported "not good by the doctors."

At his press conference the attorney general who has just completed a trip to the west coast was asked how Capone looked.

"Fit," Murphy said. "He's brown and lean and hard and physically radiant with health."

Suing Wife Collapses On Stand

SALEM, June 1—A pretty, titian-haired young wife collapsed, sobbing on the witness stand, here today after testifying that her husband began "fighting" with her on the day before their wedding, six years ago.

According to the wife, Mrs. Pauline Barrett Pinkham, 23, of Gloucester, her married life was one long series of beatings, naggings and unjust accusations. In self-defense, on one occasion, she had to threaten her husband with a table knife, she told Judge John V. Phelan.

SOBS ON STAND

She appeared in Essex County probate court as plaintiff in a divorce action against Harold L. Pinkham, Gloucester knitting mill employe.

Young Mrs. Pinkham's breakdown on the stand came after she had been asked if a family reconciliation might not be possible.

"Never, never, never," she sobbed. "I wouldn't live with him again under any circumstances whatever. I've stood all I can."

SEEKS 3 CHILDREN

She charged cruel and abusive treatment and sought custody of three children, Betty Ann, six; Pauline, five, and Constance, four. Judge Phelan took the case under advisement.

Contesting the divorce, the husband testified his wife hurled pots of hot potatoes and string beans at him and once threw a heavy piece of crockery at his head.

Their quarrels, he said, were almost all occasioned by his wife's insistence on going auto riding and keeping other "dates" with one of his own former friends.

"That fellow and I were chums—until the day he met my wife," the husband testified.

COMPLETELY AIR COOLED

Navy Starts to Free Squalus of Water

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 1—With 13 of the rescued crew of the submarine Squalus joining salvage operations, the navy today began "blowing" 600 tons of water from the stricken craft in an effort to bring her to shallow water.

After that amount of water is blown by air from the flooded after compartments, it is hoped the vessel will float sufficiently from its bed of mud so that chains may be looped about the stern.

Then, with pontoons fore and aft and two forward, the Squalus will be towed two miles toward shore to warmer and more shallow water where divers can work with less danger.

Rear Admiral C. W. Cole said today it was important that the public realize "this, necessarily, is a slow, tedious task."

In charge of the work since the Squalus sank a week ago Tuesday the admiral declared the work was proceeding according to routine.

The forward sections of the submersible already have been placed under air pressure and when buoyancy is induced into the remainder of the craft pontoons will be brought out for the actual raising process.

For every 10 minutes of work by a diver under the 40 fathoms of water, there is 45 minutes of "dead" time, while the diver is being lowered and raised, Admiral Cole pointed out.

Malay Prince And Tailor's Daughter Wed

OXFORD, Eng., June 1 (AP)—The pretty daughter of an English tailor became a Malayan princess today when she married Prince Mahmud of Trengganu in St. Giles registry office here.

The bride, 21 year-old Joyce Blencowe, a chiropodist, and the tuanegrum, brother of the sultan of the unfederated Malayan state, received many wedding gifts from well-wishers attracted by their story-book romance.

The young man, an Oxford student, had disobeyed his brother's order to return home "immediately and unmarried" when the romance first blossomed but was believed finally to have overcome his family's objections.

The princess wore a white ensemble and a silver fox cape with a spray of orchids and a pillbox hat covered with blue net. The prince wore a pin-striped suit and carried a gray felt hat.

They have booked passage on a liner sailing Friday for Malaya.

Girl Teacher Hurt in Crash

In a narrow escape from death, Miss Frances J. Ellis, 25, of Lagrange street, Brookline, a school teacher, was hurtled 15 feet as her car plunged through an iron railing at Chestnut street and Pond avenue in Jamaicaway today.

Miss Ellis said she lost control, then the car bounded over the sidewalk, ripped 20 feet of railing away and smashed against a tree in the gully near Ward's pond, 15 feet below, according to police.

The young teacher was taken to City Hospital in a police ambulance, but was released after treatment for cuts and bruises to the face and knees and possible fracture of three ribs.

Her father, William H. Ellis, is a contractor with offices in East Boston and formerly held office in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston.

Jap Bombs Again Fall Near U. S. Missions

FOOCHOW, China, June 1 (AP)—Mission reports today from Futien, southwest of Foochow, said the town was bombed again yesterday by 18 Japanese planes.

The raiders were said to have avoided hitting mission property already damaged. The American Methodist church, girls' school, girls' dormitory and foreign teachers' residence were wrecked last Thursday.

3000 Jobless In Ship Strike

Three thousand land employes were thrown out of work today as the Eastern Steamship Company suspended all shore operations because of the strike of 3000 seamen, stewards and engineers, which has tied up the fleet's 15 ships.

Offices in Yarmouth, N. S., St. John, N. B., Portland, Boston, New York, Norfolk and Richmond suffered suspension, which went into immediate effect today.

Drop Tighe Charges; Select Revere Jury

Indictments charging conspiracy to set up and maintain a gambling nuisance at the Ruby Club, Revere, were nol prossed today for Police Chief Edward J. Tighe of Revere and Archie Engle, as a jury was selected to try 14 other defendants.

There were 24 men originally under indictment, including former Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere and Lieutenant Henry Tracy and Patrolman William C. Gibeon, former members of the vice squad.

Two of them are listed as "John Doe" and "Richard Roe," with their true identities yet not discovered. Six others—Herman Shomberg, Francis McGlinchey, Louis Blatt, John Polando, Joseph Brooks and Joseph ("Eagle Beak") Cordillo—defaulted today.

With pol prosses of indictments against Tighe and Engle, that brought the number of men actually on trial down to 14.

It was announced by Assistant Attorney General John S. Derham, prosecuting, that Chief Tighe and Engle would be state witnesses in the case and that they had been served summonses.

The jury was selected today in little more than an hour, with John L. Kelly of Willow street, Chelsea, an automobile electrician, appointed foreman.

Others in the jury box are John S. MacKinnon of Westmoreland street, Dorchester, salesman; William J. Bolger, Valentine street, Roxbury, laborer; Patrick W. Costello, Cabot street, Chelsea, woodworker; John L. Ingham, Coffey street, Dorchester, shipper; Earl Dailey, Arlington street, Back Bay, clerk; John J. Sullivan, Haydn street, West Roxbury, superintendent.

John W. F. Hughes, Homer street, East Boston, storekeeper; Lorne W. Kaye, Dix street, Dorchester, manager; Chester A. McGeoch, Beech street, Roslindale, pressman; Walter E. Morrissey, Blue Hill avenue, Roxbury, chauffeur, and Harry Drinkwater, Dustin street, Brighton, plasterer.

In addition to former Mayor O'Brien, Lieutenant Tracy and Patrolman Gibson, those on trial are:

Louis Alpert, John P. Walsh, Robert McKay, Bernard Sochat, Joseph Tattleman, Jacob Stutman, Max Pollock, James Duval, Morris Rosen, Charles Shuman and Jacob Chansky.

Medford Upset by Smoke —and Smell

Traffic was brought to a standstill and a great pall of smoke, so dense as to require the turning on of electric lights, hung over parts of Malden and Medford today as an acre and a half of junked rubber tires in a veritable hill, 40 feet high, blazed like a bonfire.

So intense was the conflagration that two alarms were sounded. Early it appeared that the fire would blaze for hours, drenching the neighborhood with an almost insufferable odor. Trains on the Portland division of the Boston & Maine Railroad were held up, so close are the tracks to the blaze.

Thousands watched the spectacle, clogging traffic in Revere Beach and vicinity.

The tire-mountain was in the junkyard of David M. Feinburg and Company, at the foot of Fifth street, and the Malden River, a huge plant, covering about ten acres. It is in the Wellington section of Medford, and is used as concentration place for junk assembled from all parts of New England for sorting and transshipment, some of the materials being exported abroad for the making of munitions.

Lillian Roth Plans To Marry Oil Man

NEW YORK, June 1 (INS)—Lillian Roth, actress and singer, is planning to marry Arthur Guttman, a Houston, Tex., oil executive as soon as she obtains a Reno divorce from her second husband, Judge Ben Shalleck. She revealed her intentions last night when she and Guttman were found holding hands in a night club.

OLD COLONY PLAN DOOMS RAIL SERVICE

Fears of South Shore and Cape Cod residents for future railroad service increased today with a new reorganization plan filed by directors of the Old Colony Railroad with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Complete abandonment of all passenger and freight service by January 1, 1941, is included in the proposal.

The plan seeks to dispose of all Old Colony properties on Cape Cod, the freight terminal in Boston and its lines to New Bedford, Newport, Fall River, Fitchburg and Lowell.

It asks the Old Colony bondholders and bank creditors be paid in New Haven Railroad reorganization securities. The New Haven would be the purchaser of all properties.

Under its provisions, the task of providing any future service for commuters in such places as Brockton, Quincy, Weymouth, Braintree and Plymouth, and other branch lines now operated by equipment of the New Haven Railroad, would be placed squarely up to the stockholders.

Shift in New Haven Reorganization Urged

WASHINGTON, June 1 (INS)—The Pennsylvania Railroad, owner of 319,825 shares of common stock of the New Haven Railroad, today proposed modification of the amended plan for reorganization of the New Haven system.

The Pennsylvania told the Interstate Commerce Commission that such modification should be permitted to accord to existing voters of common stock in the New Haven a reasonable participation in the reorganized company on an equitable basis.

Vacationists Cheered By Railroad Fare Cut

Vacation travelers were cheered today when the Boston and Maine and the New Haven railroads announced lower fare prices on short haul round trips with a 60-day return limit.

While the New England roads did not go along with long haul roads in other sections in making the sweeping cuts on fares for 900 miles or more, they made the reductions apply to far shorter journeys than is the case with the other roads. Most New England hauls are short.

Boston and Albany officials announced that reductions will be announced in a short time.

King, Queen Start On Way to U. S.

JASPER, Alta., June 1 (AP)—King George and Queen Elizabeth will rest for 24 hours here on top of the Canadian Rockies where 2400 square miles of the world's largest national park spread over glacial grandeur unlike anything on the continent.

From the Pacific shore where Vancouver and Victoria completed the tribute of homage and fealty of the trans-Canadian trip, the British sovereigns moved back to their royal train for the return trip via Jasper National Park over a route to the north of the westward journey.

Few stops will be made between here and Ontario, en route to Washington and New York. Edmonton, capital of Alberta, will entertain her sovereigns six hours on Friday and Saskatoon will have a two-hour visit Saturday.

All other stops will be brief ten-minute audiences with inhabitants of towns or country districts who can get to the railway stations to see the special streak through or slow down to a four mile speed if the engineer sees a waiting crowd. He pushes a buzzer which notifies the King in the last car that loyal subjects want to see him.

On the westward trip, the royal couple used this method of making platform appearances whenever possible.

At one Ontario town, 6000 people welcomed the royal train with a brass band and community singing and cheering at 6 a. m. No stop was scheduled, and the royal slumber was rudely ended.

As a result, tour officials said that it would be impossible for Their Majesties to appear at stations which may be passed before 10 o'clock in the morning or in the evening after dark.

The King and Queen are making no bathrobe and slipper rear platform appearances.

Coe, Maine War Vet, In Congress Race

LOVELL, Me., June 1 (AP)—Major George C. Coe, retired former Legionnaire and prominent Kiwanian, announced his candidacy today for the 1940 Republican nomination for U. S. Representative in the First Maine District, a post now held by Representative James C. Oliver (R), of South Portland.

Oliver, an avowed Townsendite, was generally expected to seek renomination.

THE "TOGETHER KIDS"—"All in together" is the typical jump rope theme, and bearing along those lines when they jumped familiar home bounds and got lost . . . together, are these Roxbury twins, Joseph and John Snolinsky, 7. They followed parade, got lost, were found, and when brought home ate a hearty meal . . . together.

MYSTERY CLUB NOW HITS R. I.

PROVIDENCE, June 1—Complaints made to police and the Better Business Bureau revealed today that activities of the Mantle Club, founded in Boston last summer by Hugh B. Menjar of Decimo Club fame, has spread into Providence.

The present Mantle Club is on a military pattern and promises to benefit members by a series of "activities."

What the benefits are remain a mystery, although members of the old Decimo Club are understood to have been promised that they would be enabled to purchase clothing and household articles under a co-operative plan.

Agents for the Mantle Club, according to police, are now collecting $20 initiation fees and $2 in monthly dues from about 1000 Rhode Island and Massachusetts members.

In 1928, Attorney-General Arthur K. Reading of Massachusetts resigned after being charged with accepting $25,000 in bribes from the Decimo Club.

Subsequently, Attorney-General Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts investigated the Decimo Club and announced that he could find nothing illegal in its operations.

Both clubs have been mystery organization, with officials making little progress in their probes into activities, inasmuch as members are pledged, on their honor, to secrecy.

Roosevelt's Cold Keeps Him From Hop

WASHINGTON, June 1 (AP)—A slight cold which has troubled President Roosevelt for several days kept him from attending the annual dance which he and Mrs. Roosevelt gave for the capital newspaper men and their wives last night.

Escort Cruiser For King Docks At Navy Yard

Amid the booming of saluting guns, the British cruiser Southampton, one of the two warships that escorted King George VI and Queen Elizabeth on their transatlantic jaunt, docked at the Charlestown navy yard today for a week's stay.

Because of the presence of Vice-Admiral G. F. B. Edward-Collins aboard the Southampton, the navy yard fired a 15-gun salute. The Southampton answered with a 13-gun salute for Rear-Admiral William T. Tarrant, commandant of the yard.

The British cruiser, flagship of the second cruiser squadron in the home fleet, was berthed on the west side of Pier 1. In the easterly berth is the U. S. frigate Constitution which 127 years ago wrote naval history when it sank the English frigate Guerriere.

Following the round of usual naval courtesies, ranking officers of the Southampton will be taken to the State House and City Hall to meet Governor Saltonstall and Mayor Tobin.

The British warship will be opened to the public Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 3 to 6 p. m.

The Southampton carries a crew of 600 officers and men. Captain F. W. H. Jeans is the commanding officer.

Xavier Order Fete Monday

With Cardinal O'Connell presiding and more than 1500 members and students in attendance, the Congregation of the Brothers of St. Francis Xavier will observe its 100th anniversary Monday at Holy Cross Cathedral.

Solemn high mass will be celebrated by the Rev. William A. Dacey, of St. Ambrose's Church, Dorchester.

He will be assisted by the Rev. Thomas R. Reynolds, deacon, and the Rev. David H. McDonald, subdeacon.

The Rev. Richard J. Quinlan, supervisor of schools in the Boston archdiocese, will deliver the sermon. Master of ceremonies will be the Rev. Henry J. O'Connell of Holy Cross Cathedral.

Three-Day Retreat For Women to Open

A three-day retreat for professional women will begin tomorrow at the Cenacle, Lake street, Brighton.

For six days, beginning June 23, one of the longest retreats of the season will be held at the Cenacle, with Rev. Francis L. Keenan, D. D., as retreat master.

NEW GASOLINE IN BOSTON

Local Motorists Acclaim Socony's New Premium Gasoline

MOBILGAS SPECIAL

Why We Made It: Today's firing speeds may reach over 10,000 explosions a minute.

Everything's fitted and timed to split second exactness...

—yet, carburetion is 100°F. cooler in these same engines. It's harder for gasoline to vaporize fully—on time!

Mobilgas Special is made to meet all of these new demands.

Why It's Different: Mobilgas Special has new high volatility.

It vaporizes fast despite cooler carburetion temperatures.

It vaporizes evenly—delivers the right mixture of gasoline and air to every cylinder under all conditions.

What It Gives You: Quick, full power on starts. No sputtering. No faltering.

Rich, even power to every cylinder. None are "starved." None "pur g" or "knock"! They work together as a perfectly matched team...you get new smoothness...new quietness.

THE PULITZER PRIZE NOVEL FOR 1939!

THE YEARLING

By MARJORIE KINNAN RAWLINGS

A touching, picturesque story crowded with comedy, with full-bodied wisdom, with a set of characters that will remain close to you always. "The Yearling" has won every distinction, the acclaim of critics and reviewers everywhere, the honor of the Pulitzer Prize and most of all the approval of readers.

"A significant and stirring work of literature."
New York Herald Tribune

"A distinguished book . . . as American as the Mississippi."
The Atlantic Monthly

"A simply written story of boyhood, that stands a good chance, when adults have finished with it, of finding a permanent place in adolescent libraries."
Time

"So powerful and so interesting, so timely and so fascinating that its public should be universal."
The Boston Herald

"The hardest story to put down that I've read in years. As gripping a tale as any you can name. It's simply got everything."
Joseph Henry Jackson in the San Francisco Chronicle

LOW SHIP FARES TO EUROPE

[illegible]

In all our services there is an extra charge imposed for accommodations during our regular tourist period. One of the main reasons for adding four weeks to the six-week term is to make it possible for many people to enjoy it. Many vacationists will find it convenient to travel during the first half of this special season when crowds will not be large.

REDUCED RATE

The reduced rate, which amounts to approximately 25 per cent, makes it possible for people to moderate circumstances to enjoy a vacation in Europe at a time when the British Isles and the continental countries are very attractive. This means, in short, that for a period of 10 weeks in ahead of six months' extension fares for tourist and third-class passengers will be available on sailings from United States and Canadian Atlantic ports to Europe.

Excursion rates will be effective for all sailings beginning August 7 instead of Labor Day, September 4, as originally scheduled, and continuing until October 17. The fares themselves, based on one and one-half times the one-way fares eastbound in tourist and third classes, afford savings of between 25 and 35 per cent on a trip to Europe and back.

90 DAY STAY

Tickets issued at these rates allow a stay of 45 days abroad from the date of arrival of the ship at the terminal port, not counting day of arrival or departure.

The use of the eastbound fare as the basis of calculation for the new excursion rates is also more advantageous than the previous arrangement which was based on westbound fares."

"Honey" Johnson, Kay Johnson and Pauline Tymon

Cosmo Girl Symbol of Beauty

Border 5 feet 3 inches tall and weighing 116 pounds a green blonde 18 years old and "as modern as tomorrow's dawn."

Such is the girl chosen from the winners of 45 state contests sponsored by Cosmopolitan Magazine as Miss Cosmopolitan," the typical Cosmopolitan girl, "symbol of all America's lovely maidenhood."

She is Isabel Caldwell McDougal, a beauty from the deep south whose home is Greenwood, Miss. and her choice was announced today by Cosmopolitan's board of judges.

"She's as pretty as spring in the South," writes Faith Baldwin, one of the judges, in July's Cosmopolitan. "She has vitality and animation the world is fresh and new to her, and she likes it. She is as friendly as a kitten without claws."

Miss McDougal didn't have it all her own way in the judging for a Massachusetts girl, 20 years old, Ann Howe, runnerup Cosmo entry, was a close competitor for the title.

Miss Howe was chosen as the Bay States representative in the contest sponsored here by Cosmopolitan Magazine with the cooperation of the Eastern Advertising Agency and the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dey Howe of Provincetown, she was born in south Carolina.

The description of the composite girl might almost be a description of Ann. The Cosmopolitan composite young lady is 20 years old, 5 feet, six inches tall, weighs 120 pounds, has golden brown hair and is a member of a small family who parents living.

In the days of the late Wm. Shakespeare a lady lawyer was something to write a play about, but in these jealous times lady lawyers flock into the cloistered corridors of justice every year.

So this token Friday marks the opening of senior week at Portia Law School Beacon Hill which sends forth its contribution to the pulchritudinous ranks of the profession for 1939.

On Friday evening the coed seniors, ladies attendant thereon are slated to dance for a Senior Ball, to be held at the Hotel Statler. Over the week-end is to be a banquet at the Myles Standish H[illegible] a [illegible] picnic for a stunt to explain [illegible] comes [illegible] after.

Another Act Not On the Program

WELL, LOTHAR, WE'RE BOUND FOR COCKAGNE. IT'S GOOD TO GET BACK TO SEA AGAIN.
WE HOPE IS NOT BOUNCY.
THE CHIEF STEWARD TELLS ME THAT THE SILVERWARE HAS BEEN DISAPPEARING AT A RAPID RATE —
THAT NIGHT, AS MANDRAKE ENTERTAINS IN THE SHIP'S SALON...
WHY, CAPTAIN — AND ON YOUR OWN SHIP AT THAT?
SHALL WE GET HIM TONIGHT, OLIVER?
NO. TOMORROW'S THE FIRST DAY AT SEA. WE'LL HAVE A FIRE-DRILL — AND I HAVE AN IDEA — DISGUISED, TWO OF THE DUKE'S HENCHMEN HAVE FOLLOWED MANDRAKE!

Austen Lake:

Why Labor Cannot Crack Baseball Nut

SWEAT IS A VULGAR WORD. Gentlemen perspire. Ladies glow. But none the less Mr. Ford Frick, the emotional young prexy of the National League is having a mild sweat because he read somewhere that John L. Lewis, the strike leader, may organize major league ball players into a union for bettering wage and work conditions.

AUSTEN LAKE

Doubtless this is just a harmless gag of some news hungry journalist for no such fantastic nonsense has even entered Lewis' head, engrossed as he is with fending off the A. F. of L. and settling quarrels among his automotive workers. He can hardly have gotten around to viewing the baseball magnates as soulless corporations conspiring to stifle free competition by paying ex-college kids, ex-hayshakers and ex-mechanics more for six months of fun than they could earn in a lifetime of hoeing hominy or tending a lathe.

But Mr. Frick has always been forehanded with his jitters. And now he states that the clubowners are just emerging from the shadow of the sheriff and doing only moderately for themselves in this "era of recovery." In many cases the magnates are begging loans from the banks or scraping the bottom of the barrel or hocking their life insurance to keep the wolf from the vestibule.

Boxing for Right To Get Kayoed ‖ Baer-Nova Will Draw $100,000

MAX BAER WILL get another crack at Joe Louis if he wins from young Lou Nova in their 15-round bout in New York tonight . . . Jack Sharkey, who failed when he tried to stage a comeback, says Nova will win . . . He declares that while Baer appears to be in good condition after a long training period he will find 15 months of inactivity and advancing years have taken the fire out of his attack.

I don't [illegible] what Baer wants of another bout with Louis . . . In their last tussle, Max took a frightful licking before he went to his knees and called it an evening.

[illegible] young and believes he can fight his way past Baer [illegible] . . . I give Nova a good chance of winning [illegible] in the same class with Louis [illegible] a different story . . . Nova is [illegible] and will be stopped by Louis [illegible] tonight.

Mike Jacobs of the Twentieth Century Club is still talking about a [illegible] and $200,000 . . . Mike is merely trying to bluff up his own confidence . . . If the show draws $100,000 Jacobs will have cause for tossing a party.

NOVA PROMISES KAYO WIN; BAER HAS PULL IN WEIGHTS

NEW YORK, June 1 (AP) Max Baer will have an 8½ pound weight advantage when he steps into the Yankee Stadium ring tonight for his 15-round bout against Lou Nova. Baer weighed in at 210½ pounds today, and Nova tipped the scales at 202.

Baer was a pound and a half under the 212 he weighed in last fight against Tommy Farr in March, 1938. Nova, on his last appearance in the ring, also against Farr last December, weighed 199.

Baer, apparently proud of the fine condition of his usually tender hands, refused to permit Nova to shake his right hand when they exchanged brief greetings before stepping on the scales. Instead, Nova shook Baer's wrist.

The former champion clowned around as usual and was stopped by Gen. John J. Phelan, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, when he attempted to horn in while a physician was examining Nova.

"No clowning around here," Phelan admonished Baer.

"I'll show you how to fight tonight," said Baer to Nova as they came out of the examining room. Lou was serious and said little.

Before the examination, Nova remarked calmly, "I'll knock him out."

Promoter Mike Jacobs was none too optimistic about tonight's crowd.

"You can't tell what will happen in this town with the World's Fair going on," he said discouragingly. "I may not stage another fight here this summer."

Pitcher Davis of Cards Named Month's Star

Curt Davis, right-handed pitching ace of the St. Louis Cardinals, was the "star of the month" for May in major league baseball, Associated Press said today.

Six times during May and the end of April when the season was swinging under way Davis earned listings in compilation of "yesterday's stars."

Considering that he started only eight games during this period, his record was superlative.

Ernie Lombardi, slugging catcher of the Reds and most valuable player in the National League last year, made the star rating five times.

12 New Yorkers In P. G. A. Tesi

CHICAGO, June 1 (AP)—The New York metropolitan section will have an even dozen entries in the Professional Golfers' Association's annual tournament July 9-15, two more than any other area.

Qualifying places and those exempt from qualifying for the 1939 event at the Pomonok Country Club, Long Island, New York, were announced.

The New York sector, with eight qualifying places, three golfers who are exempt, and the automatic exemption of Joe Sylvester, the home club professional, topped Illinois and Philadelphia, which were next in line with seven qualifying places and three exempt players apiece.

The ew England section shared the most qualifying places with New York, but had only one exemption, Tony Manero, Ryder Cup team player.

SOFTBALL ON TONIGHT AT GARDEN

The Boston Garden opens its doors tonight on what promises to become an annual tradition here at the Hub when the Boston Olympets make their premier softball appearance of the year with the New York Roverettes furnishing the opposition.

The local girls are taking on a tartar in the New Yorkers, for the Roverettes are hailed as the best team in the East. Coach Hairie of the Pets, however, is of the opinion that his charges can hold their own with any club in the country.

The visitors come here boasting a well seasoned outfit that has played as a unit for the past two summers. The only defeat marring their present record is a 5-2 loss to the Langley Lacrosses of Toronto, champions of Ontario. They managed to reverse the score on the Canadians in a return engagement.

The pitching problem that threatened to disrupt the Boston scheme of affairs has been definitely laid to rest by the splendid showing of Helen Johnston of Boston's Back Bay.

Miss Johnston, a native of Connecticut, where she performed on the softball fields for five years, made a belated appearance with the Pets, but immediately caught the eye of her coach.

With the Back Bay girl hurling, Edna Stafford will return to her third base position, where her long hitting will be welcomed.

Beaned Royals Player Still Critically Ill

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 1 (AP)—Condition of Charles Gene Hasson, 24-year-old Montreal Royals star first baseman who was struck in the head with a pitched ball, remained critical today.

Dr. Elmer Milich said Hasson had a fractured skull and a "fighting chance to live." Even if he recovers, Dr. Milich added, Hasson will be lost to Montreal for the season.

Hasson was "beaned" while batting against Buffalo Tuesday in the second game he played for the Royals after joining the club. He played first base for the Athletics part of 1937 and 1938.

Giants Want Hugh Mulcahy

By International News Service.

With the trading deadline only two weeks off, several major league clubs are trying desperately today to get help either by trade or purchase.

The Yanks are momentarily expected to announce they have traded Outfielder Joe Gallagher for a pitcher.

This move by the Yanks leads one to suspect that Red Ruffing's sore arm is much more serious than the club will admit.

To an outsider, it might appear that Gomez, Hildebrand, Sundra, Gonald and Murphy could supply all the itching any manager could reasonably expect, but apparently Joe McCarthy doesn't think so.

The Giants' pitching is hopeless and Horace Stoneham is ready to take the rubber off the bankroll to lure Hugh Mulcahy from the Phils.

Unfortunately, the Giants haven't any trading material they could offer the Phils even as window dressing.

Kiddies Veterans Guests on July 17

Wilfred E. "Woolfie" Jacobs, senior department vice commander of the Massachusetts Department, Veterans Foreign Wars and chairman of the annual Veterans Kiddies' Day of the Foreign Service Veterans of Massachusetts, announced today that the tenth annual Veterans Kiddies' Day will be held on Monday afternoon, July 17, at the Boston National League Field.

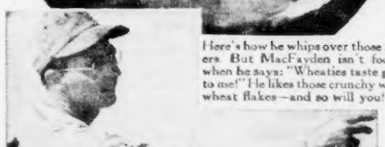
DAN FOLLOWS THROUGH FOR BEES!

Bees vs. Reds, 3 P. M. Today!

Steady and sure on the follow through, Deacon Danny gives Old Man Par a lambasting. Bee fans admire the pitching prowess of this veteran righthander who doles out mighty few hits.



Here's how he whips over those fooolers. But MacFayden isn't fooling when he says: "Wheaties taste great to me!" He likes those crunchy wholwheat flakes—and so will you!

Wheaties, with plenty of milk or cream, and some fruit, is Dan's—and many other Bees'—"Breakfast of Champions." Eat as the champions do; ask your grocer for Wheaties!

Whether you're golfing, playing ball—or enjoying a game at National League Field—it's wise to start your day right, with a "Breakfast of Champions." This complete breakfast is a real winner for important minerals, vitamins A, B, C, muscle-building proteins, and plenty of good food-energy. Follow through like the champions do: eat Wheaties!

N. U. Captain High Scorer

Captain Danny Miles of Northeastern was practically a one-man track team, scoring 10[illegible] points himself, it was revealed after Coach Jerry Tatton had gone over his records this morning.

Miles set a new N. E. intercollegiate record of 6feet 4½ inches recently.

Included among Danny's good performances this season were his leap of 6 feet, 5 inches at Bates, 6 feet, 3½ inches at Tufts 6 feet, 4 inches which tied him with Grandin Wise of Princeton for second in the indoor I. C. A. A. A. A. meet and his record effort at Durham a fortnight ago.

In addition to his high jumping Miles has been a consistent dual meet point scorer in the high and low hurdles and the broad jump.

Huskies Take Eagles in Camp

The Northeastern Huskies brought their diamond season to a successful close with a 5 to 3 win, their fifth straight of the season, over the Boston College Eagles at Huntington Field, Brookline.

It was also their seventh win out of their last eight starts. The Eagles outhit their rivals, 13 to 9, and left 17 players stranded on the sacks.

Timely hitting on the part of the Huskies was largely responsible for their win, as Boston College knotted the count at two apiece in the fifth and went ahead in the seventh. But with "Foxy" Flumere leading the attack, having a perfect day at the plate, four for four, Herb Gallagher's boys came back in their half of the seventh to score three runs and put the game on ice.

Meagher Signs 3-Year Contract

AUBURN, Ala., June 1 (AP)—President L. N. Duncan of Alabama Polytechnic announced Head Football Coach Jack Meagher had signed a new three-year contract which extends to September 1, 1945.

Meagher, who came here from Rice Institute in 1934, has produced teams victorious in many intersectional games.

POLL SAYS NOVA

GALLOP POLL: In a straw vote cast by 21 sports writers, Nova wins, 13 to 8 . . . John A. Heydler, former president of the National League, says the club with the fewest broken arms and legs will win the bunting . . . It's said Jack Dempsey is all set to follow Heywood Broun and embrace the Catholic faith . . . Tony Lazzeri is with the Giants, but the Dodgers still use Lazzeri model bats.

"HEAVEN CAN WAIT": One of the Giant farm hands, a third baseman named Ramsey on the Clinton, Ia., club, is hitting a cool .700 and wonders what he is doing wrong up there at the platter. Somebody ought to tell him, at that.

JOE COLLEGE DEPT.: One reason Southern California dominates the I. C. 4-A meets is that the Trojans rehearse all the year around . . . Tom Ananicz, St. John's College giant southpaw, worked out with the Dodgers, but signed with the Yanks, reportedly for a $2500 bonus . . . (Yanks also are said to have snagged Hank Borowy, the Fordham ace.)

PORTER VAUGHAN, U. of Richmond pitching star, who can name his big league club, probably will sign with the one agreeing to take Catcher "Stukie" Hoskins, the other half of the Spiders' celebrated home run battery.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO TEX

SPORTS COCKTAIL: Jim Braddock and Joe Gould will toss a birthday party for Tex Sullivan, their secretary, Saturday night . . . Wes Ferrell is out of luck so far as the Giants are concerned . . . Colorado Springs' Fourth of July fight between Henry Armstrong and Pedro Montanez is definitely off—boom time guarantee demands . . . Ralph De John, Syracuse middleweight, is going great guns on the Coast . . . Fight hunch: Turn the initials of Max Adelbert Baer around and you get "Bam" . . .

Sports Editor's Sister Killed

RYE, N. Y., June 1 (INS)—Funeral services were being arranged today for Mrs. W. A. Wentworth, sister of Edward W. Cochrane, supervising sports editor of the Hearst newspapers, who was injured fatally yesterday when the automobile in which she was riding with her husband struck a tree at Riverside, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth were en route home from Washington, where they had visited their daughter, Elizabeth Wentworth.

In addition to her husband and daughter Mrs. Wentworth is survived by two sons, Marston, 23, and Charles, 22, both students at Ohio State University.

Harvard Polo Team Tested

Harvard varsity and Dedham club polo teams are staging a series of informal battles at Gay Farm, Westwood, this week in tuning up for important tests of Saturday.

The Pittsfield Polo Club visits Gay Farm on Saturday, and the Crimson four goes to Hamilton to meet the Myopia Hunt Club.

Two of the Pittsfield mallet men, Zonas Colt, No. 1, and Arthur Mason, Jr., back, have played at Dedham before, but William Rand and Frank Butterworth are newcomers.

(Coat and Trousers)

They hold their press, their style and their shape

To quote a customer, "Richman Brothers" tropical worsted suits have it all over suits of non-wool fabrics." He's right. Our tropicals are 100 per cent pure virgin wool. They give long highly satisfactory service, hold their press, and retain their shape permanently. Styled and tailored exactly like Richman Brothers year-'round suits. Wonderfully cool, light, and comfortable.

Wanderers Forever seem these Nazi Jewish women and children, shown aboard German ship at Cuba, where they were denied entrance. Fears that a mass suicide pact has been pledged by the unfortunate refugees if they are returned to Germany was admitted by authorities. Two have already sought to take their lives. Of the 940 refugees only 18 were allowed to land in Cuba.
